When exposed to light
I can barely see
What am I supposed to do
Don't have to pity Me

I will wait to see you
On the other side of Time
When it's all gone
It's passed its prime

When I see the SUN
I will make it down
When I see the SKY
I will make it Brown

When I see her Face
I Get weak at the knees
What am I supposed to do
You have to pity me

I hear you tell me...

It Comes in spurts
It comes in spurts
It comes...
Because it wants you to hurt

It comes Again
It comes again
Lord knows, I just want this to end

I don't...

I don't know why I play with you all day

It becomes such a mess, When you don't know how to clean...

I really don't know... Why you have to be so mean...

I
Just got one question for you

Why does it feel as though I'm talking to a void when I'm talking to you

I

Just got one
Question for you

Can
You
Dig me out of the whole that you've dug me in

I
Am the ONE
Who
Hayats You in the Night time

I
Am the One
Who defines what you need

In the end it's all just the same
I wouldn't want it any other way
I want it to COME
I want it to go

All I wanted was just a little attention

Whips and chains
And all o that shit

What I want to know
What's it gonna come to
